NOTE.—The figures quoted above represent the population of New South Wales within its present boundaries. Victoria was separated from New South Wales on the 1st July, 1851, and Queensland on the 10th December, 1859. The Federal Capital area of Yass-Canberra was transferred to the Commonwealth on 1st January, 1911.

Aborigines are included in the totals for the last six Censuses. The numbers included were 983 in 1871, 1,643 in 1881, 8,280 in 1891, 4,287 in 1901, 2,012 (of whom 10 were in the Federal Capital area) in 1911, and 1,597 (M. 923, F. 674) in 1921.

* The population of the Federal Capital area (997 males, 727 females, 1,724 persons) is excluded.

NOTE.—From the records of the 1861 Census, the ports at which ships were lying are not available, so that the shipping population of Sydney cannot be ascertained. The total shipping population was 1,910 (males 1,842, females 68), and two-thirds of that number have been assumed to have been in Sydney Harbour, and are included above.

Aborigines are included in the totals for the last six censuses.

* The Suburbs in 1921 comprised 40 Municipalities, enumerated in Table No. 3, and Ku-ring-gai Shire.
